“As the owner of Coffeology, located in downtown Delaware, Ohio on Sandusky St. I am very grateful for the work and presence of Main Street Delaware! Many people have been to our store for the first time due to an increase of foot traffic on Farmers Market days and First Fridays! We definitely benefit from Main Street activities!”

- Melissa Dixon
Owner, Coffeology

“By working to promote the historic character of downtown Delaware, providing avenues for business owners to find mutual interests and ways to collaborate, and coordinating events that introduce people to today's downtown Delaware, Main Street Delaware has been a driving force in the success of our business. Its First Friday events, alone, have brought in thousands of people who have gone on to be repeat customers.”
